

Content

Preface	7
 INTRODUCTION: A REVEALING ANOMALY	 13
I. The “Protestant Origen”	14
1. Origen: Reception of a Church Father?	14
2. Origen’s Path in Christian Humanism	15
3. Origen and the Epistle to the Romans: Freedom and Grace	18
4. The Spirit and the Letter: Origen and Allegory	21
5. A Dividing Presence: Origen and the Lord’s Supper	30
II. Patristic Anthologies in the 16 th Century	35
1. Consensus and Quotations, Authority and Inspiration	35
2. Patristic Anthologies and the Kuleshov Effect: Montage as a Polemical Weapon	38
3. The Commonplace Method and the Erasmian Background	41
4. Patristic Anthologies in an Age of Controversy	44
5. Toward the Reception Study on Origen in Two Major Patristic Anthologies	45
 CHAPTER 1	 47
THE UNIO DISSIDENTIUM : AN AMBIGUOUS SUCCESS IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF ORIGEN
I. The Text and its Author	47
1. A Heretical Publication: Antwerp	47
2. The Unio ’s First Steps in Europe	48
3. The Reformation Speaks with the Words of the Fathers. A Success in Europe	49
4. Hermann Bodius: a Debated Identity	54
5. A Treasure Trove: the Epistle to the Reader	57

II. A Glance in Backlight: Origen and the Unio	66
1. The Fall of Adam and God's Inscrutable Will	67
2. Justification by Faith as a Patristic Problem: the Solution of the Unio ..	69
3. Sola fide sine operibus homo iustificatur	73
4. "Our Righteousness is the Confession of Our Unrighteousness": simul iustus ac peccator?	82
5. Faith and Works: a Harmony between Paul and James	84
6. Origen and the locus de poenitentia	93
7. The Eucharistic Doctrine of the Unio : Presences and Silences	100
III. The Aftermath of the Unio : a Seventeenth-Century Perspective	107
AN INTERLUDE:	109
ORIGEN PRO SOLA FIDE IN THE EUROPEAN REFORMATIONS
CHAPTER 2	115
ORIGEN AS A "PURE LUTHERAN": ANDREAS MUSCULUS' ANTHOLOGIES
I. Theological Controversies	116
1. The Dispute over the Law	116
2. The Salutary Exchange: Musculus and the Dispute over the Lord's Supper	120
II. Musculus' Patristic Sources in his Anthologies	124
1. Voices in a Counter Melody: the Fathers, Tradition and Luther	124
2. Doing Theology with the Fathers: the Reasons Behind the Choice	128
3. Names and Numbers: the Fathers in Musculus	131
4. "Free the Shining Light of the Gospels from the Cimmerian Fog": Patristic Theology	132
III. The Doctrine of an Authentic Lutheran: Justification by Faith in the Enchiridion and the Compendium	141
1. The Enchiridion	143
2. The Compendium	156
IV. Origen and Musculus' Patristic Lutheran Theology	159

ORIGEN IN CONTEXT: 163
SOME CONCLUSIONS

Bibliography	168
Sources	168
1. Origen	168
2. Other Authors	169
3. Editions of the Unio	170
4. The Condemnations of the Unio and the Inclusions in the Indices ..	172
5. Andreas Musculus	173
6. Other 16 th Century Texts	175
Secondary Literature	178

Indexes

Bible	193
Origen	194
Other Authors	195
Persons and Subjects	200