

Content

Preface	5
---------------	---

INTRODUCTION

1. Reading Origen's Christology and soteriology	13
1.1 Unity in diversity	13
1.2 A new methodological approach	14
1.3 Origen's Christology and soteriology in the tradition	15
1.4 Theses	15

PART I:

INTRODUCTORY QUESTIONS AND METHODOLOGY

2. The history of scholarship on Origen's Christology and soteriology	20
2.1 Charles Kannengiesser	20
2.2 Relevant monographs	23
2.3 Summary	33
3. A chronological overview of Origen's works	34
3.1 Treatises	34
3.1.1 On First Principles	34
3.1.2 Dialogue with Heraclides	35
3.2 Commentaries	35
3.2.1 Commentary on John	35
3.2.2 Commentary on Song of Songs	37
3.2.3 Commentary on Romans	38
3.2.4 Commentary on Matthew	38
3.3 Homilies	38
3.3.1 Homilies on Luke	39
3.3.2 Homilies on Song of Songs	39
3.3.3 Homilies on Jeremiah	39
3.3.4 Homilies on Joshua	40
3.4 Origen's apology: Against Celsus	40

4.	Textual types and audiences	42
4.1	Treatises	44
4.2	Commentaries	47
4.3	Scholia (excerpta)	49
4.4	Homilies	49
4.5	Apologetic writings – Against Celsus	53
4.6	Summary	54
5.	The transmission of Origen's writings	56
5.1	The Greek texts	57
5.2	The Latin translations	58
5.3	Transmission of the individual writings	62
5.3.1	On First Principles	62
5.3.2	Commentary on John	64
5.3.3	Commentary on Song of Songs	64
5.3.4	Commentary on Romans	65
5.3.5	Commentary on Matthew	66
5.3.6	The Homilies	68
5.3.7	Homilies on Luke	68
5.3.8	Homilies on Song of Songs	70
5.3.9	Homilies on Jeremiah	71
5.3.10	Homilies on Joshua	71
5.3.11	Homilies on Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus and Numbers	72
5.3.12	Against Celsus	72
5.4	Conclusion	73
6.	Origen's allegorical and noetic hermeneutics	75
6.1	On First Principles	80
6.2	Commentaries	88
6.2.1	Commentary on John	88
6.2.2	Commentary on Song of Songs	90
6.3	Homilies	94
6.3.1	Homilies on Song of Songs	94
6.4	Apologetic writings – Against Celsus	96
6.5	Conclusion	102

PART II: INTERPRETATION OF INDIVIDUAL WRITINGS

Introduction	104
7. On First Principles	104
7.1 Christology and soteriology in On First Principles	104
7.2 Christ's divinity – God of God and God for us	106
7.3 Christ's humanity – the mystery of the incarnation	113
7.4 Conclusion	116
8. Dialogue with Heraclides	118
9. Commentary on John	121
9.1 Christology and soteriology in Commentary on John	122
9.2 Books I–V	122
9.2.1 Substance and relation in Origen's Christology and soteriology .	122
9.2.2 Christ as mediator in creation	124
9.2.3 Subordination and emanation	125
9.2.4 Epinoia , accommodation, and emanation	130
9.3 Books VI–XIII	133
9.3.1 Subordination, emanation, participation, epinoia , and accommodation	134
9.3.2 Redemption – Christ as sacrificial lamb	135
9.3.3 Jesus' identity	136
9.3.4 Christ's works – pedagogical soteriology	138
9.4 Books XIX–XXXII	144
9.4.1 Jesus' many epinoiai	144
9.4.2 Pedagogical soteriology: Perfected man as saviour	145
9.4.3 The goal of salvation	149
9.5 Conclusion	151
10. Commentary on Song of Songs	154
10.1 The path to knowledge of Logos	155
10.2 The path to union with Logos	158
10.3 Conclusion	160
11. Commentary on Romans	162
11.1 The Adam-Christ typology	162
11.1.1 The nature of the typology	162
11.1.2 The motive of secrecy	163

11.2	Adam's sin and its consequences	165
11.3	Christ	167
11.3.1	The work of Christ	167
11.3.2	What is salvation?	169
11.3.3	Who will be saved?	172
11.3.4	When will salvation take place?	174
11.4	Minor Christological or soteriological topics in the commentary	175
11.4.1	Atonement and sacrifice	175
11.4.2	Christ as example	179
11.5	Conclusion	181
12.	Commentary on Matthew	182
12.1	The being and work of Logos	182
12.2	Jesus Christ's divine and human nature	183
12.3	Purification as part of salvation	186
12.4	Pedagogical soteriology	187
12.5	Knowledge as the way to salvation	188
12.6	Accommodation – Christ's adjustment to human beings	191
12.7	The human imitation of Christ	192
12.8	Human likeness to, or participation in, Christ	193
12.9	The death and resurrection of Jesus Christ	195
12.10	Conclusion	198
13.	Homilies on Luke	200
13.1	The incarnation of Christ and his birth through a virgin	201
13.2	The two natures of Christ	202
13.3	The universality and ubiquity of Christ	204
13.4	Salvation in Christ	206
13.5	Killing the old self	207
13.6	Redemption as liberation from spiritual enemies	208
13.7	Salvation as healing	210
13.8	Salvation as redemption from the bonds of the body	211
13.9	Salvation as becoming like Christ	213
13.10	Conclusion	214
14.	Homilies on Song of Songs	216
14.1	Moral purity as a prerequisite for the soul's meeting and uniting with Logos	217
14.2	Logos' incarnation and accommodation	220
14.3	Conclusion	222

15. Homilies on Jeremiah	224
15.1 Audience	224
15.2 Christology in Homilies on Jeremiah	225
16. Christology in Homilies on Joshua	229
16.1 The audience for the homilies	229
16.2 The hermeneutic	229
16.3 Joshua – Jesus	230
16.4 Moses and Jesus	231
16.5 To conquer the enemies and settle in the Promised Land	233
16.6 Conclusion	239
17. Apologetic writings – Against Celsus	240
17.1 Christology and soteriology in Against Celsus	240
17.2 Did God become human in Jesus of Nazareth?	240
17.3 Christ – God and man	244
17.3.1 Union without fusion of the two natures in the incarnate Christ	244
17.3.2 Fusion of the divine and the human in the Incarnate	248
17.3.3 The divine is not “confined” in Jesus at the incarnation	250
17.5 Why did God become man – soteriology in Against Celsus	252
17.5.1 Soteriology in a historical perspective	252
17.5.2 Incarnation and soteriology	253
17.6 Christology and soteriology	256
17.7 Conclusion	257

PART III: A SYSTEMATIC PRESENTATION OF ORIGEN’S CHRISTOLOGY AND SOTERIOLOGY

18. Origen’s theological system	260
18.1 The scholarly discussion on Origen’s theological system	260
18.2 Origen’s theological system – a brief sketch	261
18.3 Creation and fall	265
18.4 Salvation	268
18.5 The end of salvation history	269

